

Laugh-out-loud romantic humour for readers who like their chick lit with a bit of an edge. How does it feel to lose everything you own? Single-mum Stella is proud of the home she's created for herself and her teenage daughter. But when she wakes one morning to find her kitchen on fire, Stella knows her life will never be the same again ... With a boss she's half in love with, a daughter about to go seriously off the rails, a spendaholic mother, and a house to rebuild, Stella's problems are only just beginning. Can Stella put her life and her home back together again? And will she ever realise just what it is she really can't live without? Book 1 of the Stella Hill contemporary romance humour series. Book 2, The Family Trap, is also available on Amazon.
