

Recommended for ages 18+ due to graphic language, sexual content, and mature subject matter. Klay Rosen has had one dream, and that was taking over the family business. There had never been time for anything or anyone else. His parents were the only thing standing in the way of him getting what he wanted. They believed that status and wealth were the most important things in life and that Klay should marry someone equally as high up on the ladder of status. When Klay finally made an attempt at love, an unexpected attempt, he was faced with the most difficult decision. He had to decide if he could stay with Caroline and give up on the only dream he had ever had—Rosen Enterprises. His parents said that she wasn't good enough for him. They'd stop at nothing to keep them apart, even if it meant sabotaging the woman that he loved. He knew what he wanted and how far he'd go to get it. It was time everyone else knew as well. This book is part of a series, but it is a stand-alone novel. An excerpt of, A Home For Caroline (Which is the next book in the series and Caroline's POV) is located in the back of Klay. Enjoy!!
