

Picture a mid-life crisis; what do you see? A middle-aged man driving a convertible with a new model at his side. The notion seems humorous-until the effects of such a crisis happen to you. When you're the one watching a loved one endure this crisis, your world can turn upside down. Overnight, Teresa Morgan's entire existence was changed. Her normal, family-centered life came crumbling down around her when her husband became consumed with the extreme temptations that a mid-life crisis can present. Here, she tells her story. Walk through the ups and downs of Teresa's life as she struggles with watching her loved one falter, finding a way to cope, and journeying into the bright light of the calm after a storm.
