

This raw, brawling novel, first published in 1957, is a fiercely realistic account of naval combat during World War II--in particular, the hell that was Nazi submarine warfare. A German counterpart to The Caine Mutiny (Frederic Morton), SHARKS AND LITTLE FISH is based on the author's own experiences as a young submariner. It is as uncompromising, vivid, and unfalsified an account of war-time naval life as has appeared. (Times Literary Supplement)
