

In Soul Graffiti Â Mark Scandretteâ€™ writer, poet, and leader in the Emergent church movementâ€™ uses vivid stories of his own life and the lives of the many people he has encountered in his home in the Mission District of San Francisco to explore what good news of God might mean for our particular time and place. He seeks to answer the central question: How can we be about making a life in the way of Jesus? Soul Graffiti is a simple and lyrical exploration of the essential message of Jesus as it relates to the experiences of contemporary spiritual seekers. He integrates theological insight with awareness of human psychology, culture, and daily life. Written to appeal to the sensibilities of those who inhabit a post-Christendom milieu, Mark Scandrette's deepest hope is to give readers greater motivation for, and a fuller sense of what it means to make a life in, the way of Jesus.
