

Una historia apasionante donde se reinventan los límites de la realidad. Después de 10 años de separación, Cho vuela desde Estados Unidos hasta Japón, para encontrarse con su hermana, de quien se separó tras el misterioso asesinato de su madre... Su hermana Violeta, mejor conocida como Murasaki, es la reina del anime. Una mangaka que tiene en vilo a Japón con su serie de dibujos animados basados en su hermana Cho y en sus padres fallecidos. La pequeña Cho llegará a Tokio para poner de cabeza a todos quienes colaboran en la empresa de animés para la que trabaja su hermana, pero algo más grave que los arrebatos de una adolescente asperger las acecha. Las hermanas son perseguidas por Fujita sama, un ex mercenario que debe matar a una de ellas. ¿Que se esconde en el oscuro pasado de su madre asesinada? Una novela de aventuras y sentimientos que nos enseña el amor y el respeto hacia el otro. Una narración llena de ocurrencias, de fantasía, de disfraces cosplay y del mundo manga. Una historia de personajes extraños y a la vez profundamente cercanos. Una novela para jóvenes seguidores del manga, para padres con hijos diferentes, ya sean aspergers, hiperactivos o autistas, una historia para los amantes de la novela de aventuras y suspenso, un libro para emocionarse y reflexionar.

ENGLISH DESCRIPTION After a decade-long separation triggered by the death of their mother, Cho flies from the US to Japan to meet her estranged sister Violet. Known as Murasaki, Violet is the queen of anime—a mangaka whose cartoons, based on her sister Cho and their dead parents, have Japan in upheaval. The fact that the sisters are now being chased by Fujita sama, a former mercenary who has vowed to eliminate one of them, leads us to wonder what dark secret was buried with their mother's murder.
